JUNI FISHER CONCERT, FRIDAY NIGHT OF THE GATHER!!

Y'all are in for a rare treat at this year's Westerners Gather. Juni Fisher, award-winning songwriter, entertainer, and writer will be performing a concert just for us during our Friday night banquet. Her voice and lyrics will charm you and keep you humming a tune for days, and her stories will entertain you and keep you close to the legends and histories of the West.

Juni was raised in a California farming family. She took part in 4H and FFA as a youngster, rode sale pens and exercised show horses in her formative years, and sang in big-band orchestras for extra money during school. After college she apprenticed with well-known cow-horse and bridle-horse trainers, winning events as she rose up in the horse world and, eventually, in the cutting horse world.

She sang and played rhythm guitar in California and honed her skills with some of Nashville's finest songwriters. Her first album, "Tumbleweed Letters" came out in 1999 and has been followed by many memorable and award-winning albums.

Juni is one of the nation's top solo Western Music Performers. Her recognitions include 2006, 2009, and 2011 Western Music Association Female Performer of the year; 2011 WMA Entertainer of the Year; 2013 WMA Song of the Year; 2008 Western Heritage Wrangler Award for Most Outstanding Traditional Western Album; and 2012 and 2017 True West Magazine Best Solo Musician.

Juni Fisher tours the country full time, delighting audiences with her original songs, storytelling, and guitar playing. "Juni Fisher's luminous intensity ignites her writing and her performances," notes one journalist. "At the heart of her unique and complex artistry is her ability to bring alive ... unforgettable characters and images." Or, as the famous cowboy poet Waddie Mitchell once put it, "Juni Fisher is the best thing to happen to western music in a long time."

When not touring, Juni rides and trains her beloved horses for cow-horse competitions. In 2012 she won the prestigious National Reined Cowhorse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity and she continues her riding career in NRCHA and other competitions.

Juni Fisher's passion for the West, its legends, and its horses and cattle will leave you grinning, tapping your foot, and feeling glad all over that you joined us for the Gather. We know you'll love it!

*Come join us for a grand time with fellow Westerners!
Enjoy a wonderful history program on the site of the Adobe Walls battlesite
Be part of a memorable concert from Juni Fisher, Western Music Assoc. Entertainer of the Year. Don't miss
